ABOUT CIO|CSO ASEAN AWARDS

The 11th ASEAN CIO|CSO Awards 2015 (Chief Information Officer and Chief Security Officer) – the first event of its kind in ASEAN – organized by International Data Group (IDG), collaborated and endorsed by Vietnam Government Information Security Commission, Ministry of National Defense, Ministry of Information and Communications (MIC), Ministry of Public Security, Ministry of Science and Technology; supported by Vietnam Computer Emergency Response Team (VNCERT), NiDA (National ICT Development Authority) – Cambodia, (ISC)² (International Information Systems Security Certification Consortium), ISPA.my (Information Security Professional Association of Malaysia) – Malaysia.

The CIO|CSO Awards looks for and honors outstanding individuals who are responsible for information management and security in order to ensure business continuity, minimize business risks and maximize business opportunities in the enterprises, governmental and civic organizations.

Members of Board of Judges (BoJ) who are representatives of government, social organizations and ICT community; IT/IS experts and leading IT/IS corporations to look for and nominate potential CIOs and CSOs. Qualified individuals from enterprises, government and civic organizations may also apply by themselves with the confirmation of their direct supervisor or chief in the organization.

To participate in ASEAN CIO|CSO Awards, nominees/applicants are required to submit information related to a particular information technology and information security initiative (as described in Nomination Form). This includes general description, benefits for the organization and the community, role of the CIO|CSO and innovative contributions in implementing such information management and security. Nominees/Applicants could also provide more information related to their projects as illustrative pictures or videos.... The Board of Judges will consider that information to decide the inclusion in the CIO|CSO Index for 2015.

Member(s) of the Board of Judges will directly interview nominees/applicants and verify the nominee information at their workplace in order to select and honor outstanding CIOs and CSOs for 2015. The ceremony is scheduled to be held on September 17th, 2015 in Hanoi with the presence of government officials, IT/Security community and mass media.

The representatives of CIO|CSO 2015 winners are also invited to speak and share their experience at ASEAN CIO|CSO Summit 2015 on September 17th, 2015 in Hanoi.
